

ALL IN Training Course, Scotland

ALL IN is a strategic partnership project funded by Erasmus+ with partners from Austria, Spain, Italy, Bulgaria, Belgium, Slovenia and Scotland. The project aims to develop and test training for the youth work sector on inclusive youth work.

Further information about the ALL IN project can be found here.

Training Programme

The course runs over four days on 15th and 16th October, 5th and 6th November in YouthLink Scotland offices, Central Edinburgh. The training aims to give participants space and time to gain practical and theoretical knowledge about inclusive youth work, and the skills to implement it in youth work practice.

The course follows the principles of non-formal education. The modules are also supported by an online learning platform for continued peer support and learning.

Learning Objectives

1. Form a definition of inclusive youth work practice and understand the impact of social exclusion
2. Reflect on and critique own behaviours, views and practice, as well as spaces and organisations around them
3. Embed inclusive practice into organisational processes and activities, for example strategy development, resource allocation and evaluation
4. Create plans to deal with discrimination and support young people and colleagues at individual and organisational level
5. Share knowledge on inclusive youth work with others

Apply to take part

You can apply to take part in this training by filling in a short application here. Please note that applications do not guarantee a place. Places will be allocated according to a mix of experience, location, and organisation type.

The application deadline is 5pm Monday 17th September. Successful applicants will be informed by Wednesday 19th September.

Participant requirements

Participants of this training should meet the following criteria:

- Youth workers (voluntary, sessional and paid) and others involved in working with young people
- Willingness to develop competences in inclusive youth work and share knowledge, skills and experiences with other participants
- Are at least 18 years old
- Are motivated to be fully involved in the training process (self-assessment, self-led learning) and attend at least 80% of the training

The training will meet accessibility standards. If participants require support or assistance, these should be detailed in the application in order for us to organise in advance.
