21. At all General Meetings a motion or resolution put to the vote shall be decided by a simple majority of members entitled to vote. In the case of equality of votes the Chairperson shall have the casting vote (irrespective whether the Chairperson would otherwise be entitled to vote or not).
22. A resolution in writing executed by or on behalf of each member who would have been entitled to vote upon it if it had been proposed at a general meeting at which it was present shall be as effectual as if it had been passed at a General Meeting duly convened and held and may consist of several instruments in the like form each executed by or on behalf of one or more members.
23. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at that meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairperson of that meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

27. If a poll is duly demanded, it shall be taken in such manner and at such time as the Chairperson of the meeting directs and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. A poll demanded on the election of a chairperson in terms of Article 18 shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time during the meeting as the chairperson of the meeting directs. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

No alteration of the Memorandum or Articles and no such direction shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given. The powers given by this regulation shall not be limited by any special power given to the Directors by the Articles and a meeting of the Directors at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the Directors. The Directors may delegate any of their powers to any committee consisting of one or more of their number. They may also delegate to any of their number such of their powers as they consider desirable to be exercised by that person. Any such delegation may be made subject to any conditions the Directors may impose and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers and may be revoked or altered. Subject to any such conditions, the proceedings of a committee with two or more members shall be governed by the Articles regulating the proceedings of the Directors so far as they are capable of applying.
40. The Directors shall appoint and employ such officers and staff as they consider necessary, and shall (subject to the provisions of the Memorandum) regulate their duties and fix their salaries. The Directors may, by Power of Attorney or otherwise, appoint any person to be the agent of the Company for such purposes and on such conditions as they determine, including authority for the agent to delegate all or any of his powers.
41. All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments, and all receipts for moneys paid to the Company, shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed, as the case may be, in such a manner as the Directors shall from time to time determine.

42. The Directors shall cause Minutes to be made of proceedings at meetings for the purpose of:
 - 42.1 All appointments of officers and staff made by the Directors;
 - 42.2 The names of the Directors present at each meeting thereof; and
 - 42.3 All resolutions and proceedings at all meetings of the Directors.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE DIRECTORS

43. The Directors shall meet at least four times in each year, and may adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. For the avoidance of doubt, each Director shall have one vote each. In case of an equality of votes, the Chairperson (or the person acting as Chair) shall have a second or casting vote. Subject to the provisions of the articles the Directors may regulate their proceedings as they think fit. The Secretary shall ensure that seven days' clear notice is given to each Director of each Directors' Meeting, the length of such notice in every case to be calculated exclusive of the day on which the notice is served or is deemed to be served and the day for which it is given and such notice shall stipulate the date, time and venue of such meeting and the purpose for which it is to be convened. Accidental omission to give notice of any Directors' Meeting to, or the non-receipt of the notice by, any Director shall not invalidate any resolution passed or proceedings at that meeting.
44. The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Directors shall be four.
45. The Chairperson, or in the absence of the Chairperson a Vice-Chairperson, shall preside at meetings of the Directors. In the absence of both the Chairperson and Vice-Chairpersons, the Directors present shall choose one of their number to be chairperson of the meeting.
46. The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, without prejudice to the power of co-optation contained in Articles 36 and 37.
47. A Director shall comply with the duties incumbent upon him in terms of the Act or The Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, with specific regard to the conflict of interest provisions contained therein.
48. All acts done by a meeting of the Directors, or of a committee of Directors, or by a person acting as a Director shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of any Director or that any of them were disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a Director and had been entitled to vote.
49. A Director may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee of the Board by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment whereby all the Directors participating in the meeting can hear each other, and the Directors participating in a meeting in this manner shall be deemed to be present in person at such meeting. A resolution in writing which has been signed by all the Directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of Directors or of a committee of Directors (which signature may be evidenced by letter, email, fax, or otherwise as the Directors may from time to time resolve to permit) shall be as effective as a resolution duly passed at a meeting of the Directors of (as the case may be) a committee of Directors duly convened and held and may consist of several documents in the same terms each signed by one or more Directors but a resolution signed by an alternate director need not also be signed by his appointer, and if it is signed by a Director who has appointed an alternate director, it need not be signed by the alternate director in that capacity.

SECRETARY

50. The Secretary shall be appointed by the Directors for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit, and any Secretary so appointed may be removed by the Directors.

ACCOUNTS

51. The Directors shall cause proper books of accounts to be kept with respect to:
 - 51.1 All sums of money received and expended by the Company and the matters in respect of which the receipt and expenditure takes place;
 - 51.2 All sales and purchases of goods by the Company;
 - 51.3 The assets and liabilities of the Company.
52. Proper books shall not be deemed to be kept if there are not kept such books of account as are necessary to give a true and fair view of the state of the Company's affairs and to explain its transactions.
53. The books of account shall be kept at the Office or at such other place as the Directors shall think fit, and shall always be open to the inspection of the Directors.
54. The Directors shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions and regulations the accounts and books of the Company shall be open to the inspection of members not being Directors.
55. The Directors shall from time to time in accordance with the Act, cause to be prepared and to be laid before the Company in plenary meeting such profit and loss accounts, balance sheets and reports as are referred to in the Articles.
56. A copy of every balance sheet (including every document required by law to be annexed thereto) which is to be laid before the Company in General Meetings, together with a copy of the Auditor's reports, shall not less than twenty-one days before the date of the meeting be sent to all persons entitled under Article 14 to receive notice of such meeting.
57. Once at least in every year the accounts of the Company shall be audited by a Registered Auditor.
58. The Auditor shall be appointed and his duties regulated in accordance with the Act.

DISSOLUTION

59. Clause 7 of the Memorandum shall have effect as if its provisions thereof were repeated in the Articles.

INTERPRETATION

60. In any dispute as to the proper interpretation to be given to the Articles the decision of the Directors shall be final.

NOTICES

61. Any notice to be given to or by any person pursuant to the Articles may either be in writing or in electronic form.
- 61.1 Where the Company intends to give notice of a meeting to a member in writing it will do so by sending the notice by post in a prepaid envelope addressed to the member at its registered address. A member present at any meeting of the Company shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where requisite, of the purposes for which it was called. Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. A notice shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be given at the expiration of 48 hours after the envelope containing it was posted.
- 61.2 Where the Company intends to give notice of a meeting to a member in electronic form, there shall be a prior agreement in place between the member and the Company authorising that such notice may be given in electronic form. The Secretary shall maintain a record of email addresses. It shall be the responsibility of the member to inform the Secretary of any change of email address. A notice shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be given at the expiration of 24 hours after the email containing it was sent.

INDEMNITY

62. Subject to the provisions of the Act but without prejudice to any indemnity to which a Director may otherwise be entitled, every Director or other officer or auditor of the Company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against any liability incurred by him in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgement is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application in which relief is granted to him by the court from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the Company.
