

Policy Seminar Series: Wednesday 28th August 2019 – Glasgow, 10.15am until 3.30pm (Radisson Blu, Registration from 9.45am)

UNCRC – Incorporation into Scots Law and Youth Work

Delegate Programme

- 09.45 Registration
- 10.15 Opening remarks – welcome and reflections from the seminar chair
- 10.20 Keynote address - Maree Todd, Minister for Children and Young People
- 10.35 Specialist address - Dr Kasey McCall-Smith, Lecturer in Public International Law and currently involved in a multi-year project examining variable international law issues relating to detention operations and military commissions in Guantánamo Bay as well as the implementation of children’s rights in Scotland.
- 10.55 Break
- 11.15 Migrant Youth
- 11.45 LGBT Youth Scotland – Trans Rights and UNCRC Incorporation
- 12.00 Jack Dudgeon – MSYP – Discussing the Scottish Youth Parliament’s work on advancing the rights of children and young people in Scotland framed in the context of UNCRC Incorporation.
- 12.15 Panel Q&A Session
- 13.00 Lunch and informal networking
- 14.00 Thematic Networking: Planning and Formulation of Group Supplementary Response to Scottish Government Consultation on UNCRC Incorporation and the Role of Youth Work in Fulfilling its Aims
- Next steps for youth work practice and policy making within the context of the seminar theme
- 15.00 Closing Remarks - Chair’s seminar reflections and event evaluation
- 15:15 Close

Revati Campbell MSYP – Will be youth digital reporter on the day.