

Thursday 5 December 2019, 10am – 1.30pm

AGENDA: Youth Work in a Caring Space

The Mews, NASUWT, 35 Young Street North Lane, Edinburgh, EH2 4JD

	Registration	9.40am
	Welcome from the Members Networking Planning Group <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Updates and dates for 2019• YouthLink Scotland updates (Amy Calder)• National Youth Work Strategy (Kevin Kane)	10am
	Mo Ford - The Junction – Young People, Health & Wellbeing The Junction – Young People, Health & Wellbeing is an award-winning organisation established in 2005 in response to local action research: 'Safe & Sorted? Not in Leith', taking a holistic approach towards young people's health & wellbeing.	10.15am
	Megan Binns – 6VT Cairn Project 6VT Cairn Project is a specialised confidential support service that works alongside young people aged 12 - 18 years old, from Edinburgh who have been a victim of crime.	10.30am
	Q&A with Mo and Megan	11am
	Informal Networking – with refreshments	11:15am
	Michael Salkow, NHS Health Scotland NHS Health Scotland supporting the wider public workforce to access health data	11.30am
	Interactive Session - supporting young people with their health and wellbeing Sean Humphreys, Mental Health and Wellbeing Development Officer at YouthLink Scotland	11:45am
	Member's Space Opportunity for members to share updates, good practice or make announcements	12.45pm
	Informal Networking & Close of Event	1pm