

BA (Hons) Community Education

...at the University of Dundee

School of Education and Social Work

Are you interested in social justice, working with communities or youth work?

Places are still available to study at University of Dundee on the BA (Hons) Community Education Programme, starting in Sept 2021.

You will learn about the theory of community work, undertake research and have practical placement opportunities with a range of community organisations during your four years of study. Qualifying with a professionally recognised Bachelor of Arts with honours.

We cover contemporary issues such as; democracy, food dignity, social inequalities, global justice, sustainability, international development, gender issues, and anti-racism – bringing these together into a framework for taking action through educational methods of community engagement, community development, adult education, youth work and activism.
